

Keeping warm

In the winter we have heating in our homes to keep us warm. There are different types of heaters such as radiators, fires and electric heaters.

It is important to be careful around all types of heaters as they can get very hot and burn.

Fires with real flames should always have a fire guard.

Do not put clothes or furniture too near to heaters to heaters and fires.

Don't play too near to heaters and fires.

