

Who's responsible?

Give the students an adequate amount of time to identify:

- a) Who's responsible
- b) What the consequences could be
- c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond
- d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. The passenger Adam is drunk and the driver Kevin picks him up from a party. As soon as Adam gets in the car he turns the music up. He then leans over and starts beeping the horn and flashing the lights at other motorists. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |
| 2. The passenger Emily gets into her boyfriend's Alex's car and can smell alcohol on his breath. When she talks to him he appears to be a little bit drunk. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |
| 3. The driver Colin picks up his mate Tom, as Tom gets in he looks at the car and is convinced it's going to fall apart as it's not very well maintained. As soon as Tom puts his belt on, Colin pulls out dangerously in front of another car and speeds away. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |
| 4. Joanne the driver has just passed her test when she takes her three mates Suzie, Leanne and Cerys out for a drive. They pull up to a set of traffic lights where there is a group of boys in the car next to them. Joanne's mates encourage her to race the boys to the next set of lights – after all it's only a laugh. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |

| | |
|---|---|
| 5. Mark and Julie have two children Andrew and Isaac, Julie is driving to the South coast for their holiday. About an hour into the journey on the motorway Andrew and Isaac start arguing in the back of the car. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |
| 6. Vicky the driver has just picked up her friend Claire for a shopping trip. Whilst driving Vicky is constantly reading her text messages and replying to them. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |
| 7. Phil and Ben get onto the school bus, they sit down and wait for the driver to pull off. As soon as he has they turn around in their seats to talk to Dave and Jack behind them. The driver shouts back to them and asks them to sit down and belt up! They ignore his rants and finish their conversation. | You have to read the scenario and identify: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Who's responsible? b) What the consequences could be c) A number of ways in which the driver/passenger could respond d) The most assertive way to deal with the situation |